SWAROVSKI

SWAROVSKI X SKIMS COLLABORATION LAUNCH

Swarovski and SKIMS have collaborated on a dazzling collection of body jewelry, intimates, and ready-to-wear. After its launch in ANZ on November 7, 2023, both at the Swarovski Westfield Sydney Store and online at skims.com, Swarovski x SKIMS represents the seamless alignment of visions between two iconic brands.

"It's been a dream since I joined Swarovski to create a first-ever collaboration with SKIMS that furthers the art of self-expression," says Giovanna Engelbert, Creative Director, Swarovski. "Our collection is a celebration of the body, and of strong, independent women who value their individuality and embrace life with confidence and style."

"For this collaboration, we really wanted to celebrate individual creativity and bring more glamour into getting dressed every day," says Kim Kardashian, Co-Founder & Creative Director, SKIMS. "The pieces are so dreamy, and we loved integrating the iconic crystal cuts into my favourite SKIMS pieces. We can't wait for everyone to love Swarovski x SKIMS as much as I do."

The collaboration is unveiled with a series of astonishing images featuring Kim Kardashian. Shot by globally renowned photographer

Mert Alas, the campaign captures the glamour and artistry that define Swarovski x SKIMS while celebrating representation and individual confidence.

Swarovski x SKIMS features crystal body jewellery that can be styled in multiple ways and ready-to-wear including crystallised intimates, bodysuits, and dresses that shine with luxurious brilliance.

Swarovski x SKIMS crystal body jewellery is size-inclusive and flatters the feminine silhouette with next-level brilliance. Inspired by the Millenia jewellery collection, the pieces can be layered over or under a garment, and styled with matching chokers, necklaces, and bracelets for showstopping impact. Handcrafted with meticulous precision, each piece offers unique beauty and radiance.

Swarovski x SKIMS ready-to-wear is available in a range of crystal-embellished silhouettes that can be layered and worn for any occasion. Created with SKIMS signature fabrics that perfectly mold to the body, each empowering piece has been designed for confidence and comfort and is set with glittering crystals that radiate glamour and shine.

The Sydney International Watch Fair | Artisans of Time

The Sydney International Watch Fair | Artisans of Time marked a historic moment as Australia's premier watch event, introducing the elite of independent Swiss watchmaking brands to the country for the first time. In collaboration with the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney, the Sydney International Watch Fair | Artisans of Time brought together nine of the finest independent Swiss watchmaking brands, showcasing their latest creations in a single, prestigious venue.

Among the remarkable highlights of the three-day exhibition at the InterContinental Hotel's Grand Ballroom, the official opening on Thursday, November 2nd, at 11 am featured the unveiling of a million-dollar watch. Rebellion Timepieces' The Re-Volt stole the show, adorned with 330 Baguette-cut white diamonds, creating a stunning visual display that enhances its skeletonized movement, embodying watch styling aesthetics with full transparency.

The Sydney International Watch Fair - Artisans of Time hosted an exclusive lineup of nine international independent luxury Swiss watch brands visiting Australia for the event. These esteemed brands included Angelus, Arnold & Son (founded in 1764), Bianchet Tourbillon Watches, CVSTOS The Time Keeper, Cyrus Geneve, Rebellion Timepieces, SpeakMarin, Perrelet (founded in 1777), and Mauron Musy.

Models to watch out for in 2024

Photographed By: Tony Palliser/Studio 49

SASSY AND CO. 15

Annabelle Austin, a model with Royale Modelling, has been immersed in the world of modeling for approximately 1.5 years. Her enthusiasm for this industry burgeoned at the close of 2021, propelling her on a quest to comprehend and explore its intricacies. Fast forward to the present day, at the age of 19, she has amassed a wealth of experiences through numerous photoshoots, transforming into a poised and confident individual in front of the camera.

Beyond her modelling endeavours, Annabelle has a deep passion for fitness, the gym, beauty, and fashion. The thrill of pushing her physical limits in the gym exhilarates her, and she firmly believes that a healthy body forms the foundation of confidence and self-expression. Equally enamored by the realms of beauty and fashion, they serve as avenues for her to explore creativity and style. Whether experimenting with makeup, selecting trendy outfits, or staying abreast of the latest fashion trends, these interests not only enrich her life but also provide a channel for self-discovery and personal expression.

Fluent in Slovakian, a proficiency acquired through her mother's Slovakian heritage, Annabelle captivates others with the unique charm of this Eastern European language. Growing up immersed in Slovak culture, she developed a deep connection by embracing the music and films that shaped her mother's upbringing. Slovakian holds an integral place in her identity, its rarity as a language adding a unique and captivating dimension that often sparks fascination in others.

Amelia Huettner

Amelia Huettner, affiliated with Royale Modelling, has been actively engaged in the world of modelling for approximately 2 and a half years. Throughout this period, she has continually evolved, growing more comfortable in her own skin and increasingly adept behind the camera.

Amelia is deeply passionate about both fashion and feminism. Her love for fashion extends beyond the aesthetics; it serves as a powerful means of self-expression, allowing her the freedom to constantly reinvent her style. As a fervent supporter of feminism, she believes in empowering women to feel confident and self-assured despite societal pressures and norms. In her view, beauty encompasses a diverse spectrum, embracing various body types and appearances. Amelia actively promotes this mindset among the women in her life and aspires to perpetuate this journey through her work in the future.

Beyond her modelling pursuits, Amelia has led an adventurous life, marked by more than 15 relocations by the age of 24. Having lived in various locations across Australia in short bursts, her life has been dynamic, interesting, and unpredictable. This rich tapestry of experiences has undoubtedly shaped her perspective and contributed to the unique individual she is today.

Paige Vickers

Paige Vickers, under the management of Royale Modelling, embarked on her modelling journey at the age of 13. Passionate about the craft, she finds joy in embracing new challenges and continuously evolving as she overcomes them. An interesting quirk about Paige is her recent move to Sydney. Despite her love for the beach, there's a humorous twist – she doesn't know how to swim yet, adding a lighthearted element to her coastal adventures.

Lilly Frost, under the guidance of Royale Modelling, is an 18-year-old with a dedicated focus on modelling for the past two years, having joined Royale just this year. Beyond her commitment to modelling, Lilly possesses a deep passion for the arts. Most, if not all, of her free time is spent immersed in the world of painting and drawing. Noteworthy is her practice of crafting personalised birthday cards for family and friends through her artistic talents, and she indulges in painting for her own recreation.

Lilly's medium of choice is watercolour, a preference that extends back to her high school major work. Considering this penchant for watercolour as a unique passion and trait, Lilly finds profound joy and expression through her artistic endeavours. In her overall creative pursuits, encompassing both modelling and art, Lilly views them as powerful tools for self-expression, allowing her to convey her unique perspective and creativity.

Camila Duque

Camila Duque, under the management of Royale Modelling, ventured into the modelling industry just six months ago. Known for her curiosity, she doesn't limit herself to specific opinions about her personality or passions, as her interests are diverse and ever-evolving.

Camila harbours dreams of achieving multiple aspirations; she aspires to become a top model while also entertaining the ideas of pursuing a career as a criminologist, a professional dancer, or even a marine biologist. Her multifaceted ambitions showcase her versatility and open-minded approach to her future.

Adding a lighthearted touch to her personality, Camila has a quirky habit of pretending to be a private detective in public places, creating imaginative backstories for the people around her. This amusing quirk highlights her playful and creative nature as she navigates both the modeling world and her varied dreams and interests.

Yvette Saggioma

Yvette Saggioma, under the management of Royale Modelling, embarked on her modelling journey at a very young age, around 6 years old, initially working with local fashion shops. As she grew older, modelling evolved from a childhood pursuit into a genuine passion, and in recent years, she has delved into her modelling endeavours with greater depth and commitment.

Apart from her modelling pursuits, Yvette is driven by a profound passion for making a positive impact in the world. Her desire to help others led her to pursue a career as a student paramedic, building upon her previous nursing degree. She sees this profession as the optimal way to contribute to the well-being of those in need, even if it entails the significant responsibility of saving lives.

Adding a unique and amusing dimension to her personality, Yvette describes herself as extremely introverted, yet she harbours a genuine love for meeting and connecting with new people — an intriguing paradox. Additionally, she confesses to an unusual obsession with border collies, adding a touch of humour to her distinctive traits.

Djennah

Djennah, under the management of Royale Modelling, has delved into the world of modelling for less than a year. Beyond the runway, she harbours a profound passion for music, dedicating at least three hours of her day to immersing herself in its melodies and rhythms.

Adding a touch of whimsy to her personality, Djennah confesses to a charming habit—she still sleeps with stuffed animals. This endearing quirk showcases a delightful and playful side to her character, blending seamlessly with her budding modelling career and love for music.

Leah Pan

Leah Pan, under the management of Royale Modelling, embarked on her modelling journey at the age of 13, initially exploring shoots around her neighbourhood with her sister. Since those early days, her modelling career has soared, gracing prestigious runways like New York Fashion Week and featuring in national campaigns across Australia for brands such as Mezi Australia, The Silver Collective, and Naked Tan, among many others. Leah's modelling adventures have taken her to various locations, including Cairns, America, and around the world. Notably, she had the privilege of training with supermodel Coco Rocha, who imparted invaluable lessons on posing, walking, and overall modelling prowess—an experience for which she remains deeply grateful.

Leah approaches modelling with a profound sense of dedication and love. Beyond the glamour of the industry, she is passionate about uplifting others and inviting them on a journey of self-discovery. Her commitment extends to making people feel heard, valued, and purposeful, especially in challenging moments. Leah advocates for a world where individuals support and uplift one another, fostering an environment of kindness and respect.

A self-proclaimed risk-taker, Leah is strategic in her approach, taking calculated risks to live life on the edge. She believes in the transformative power of stepping outside one's comfort zone, asserting that growth comes from embracing new experiences and challenges. Leah encourages others to break free from societal expectations, embrace their true selves, and live life authentically. In her eyes, life is too short to be confined by fear, and she urges everyone to seize the moment, wear that daring outfit, and engage with new people and experiences. For Leah, true liberation comes from living unapologetically and embracing the liberating feeling of being free.

Annabel Bassil

Annabel Bassil, affiliated with Royale Modelling, is relatively new to the modelling industry, having been signed with an agency for just a few months. Despite her recent entry, Annabel is eager and excited to explore the opportunities that lie ahead in her modeling journey.

Beyond the world of fashion, Annabel harbours a profound passion for the oceans. In her younger years, she aspired to be a marine biologist and remains actively engaged in projects aimed at protecting and preserving this beautiful aquatic realm. Annabel finds solace and joy in spending as much time as possible in or by the oceans, considering them her calm and happy place.

Adding an adventurous twist to her personality, Annabel once took on the challenge of the world's highest bridge bungee jump in South Africa. While the experience was disgustingly terrifying, she looks back on it as a daring feat, although one she confesses she wouldn't repeat. This combination of passion for the oceans and a taste for thrilling adventures paints a vibrant picture of Annabel's multifaceted personality.

Charlotte-Jade Ali

Charlotte-Jade Ali, under the management of Royale Modelling since 2023, has seamlessly integrated into the team. However, her journey in the modelling world extends back to the age of 15, where she was fortunate to be offered numerous freelancing opportunities both nationally and internationally.

With a background of training at the English National Ballet School in London, Charlotte-Jade is deeply passionate about the arts industry. Her commitment extends to preserving and contributing to the vibrancy of the Australian arts culture and industry.

Adding a unique layer to her multifaceted persona, when not engaged in modeling or immersed in fashion studies, Charlotte-Jade is fortunate to represent Australia internationally in equestrian showjumping. This diverse set of interests showcases her versatility and dedication to both the world of fashion and the equestrian arena.

Hashtag Car Hire

Hashtag, is a premium car hire service. It's expanding its fleet, now offering a variety of cars, including Lamborghinis, luxury Mercedes, Rolls Royce, and Ferraris.

They cater to all occasions that demand a touch of elegance in the form of a set of wheels to elevate the event. In addition to providing luxurious vehicles, they can also assist in planning your entire event, covering everything from photography to catering and everything in between!

Sassy & Co recently engaged in a brief conversation with the founder and owner of Hashtag, Jonny Estasy, and here's a glimpse of what transpired.

In the spotlight today is Jonny Estasy, the founder and owner of Hashtag. Jonny, your stunning cars have graced numerous high-profile events. Can you share the captivating story behind the inception of Hashtag?

I started in 2014 with no vehicles, and I was wholesaling from existing companies or utilising my network of vehicles.

Slowly, I started to see which cars would make the best return on investment. Then I slowly started to build the fleet, which has included the Hermes Rolls Royce Cullinan, Lamborghini Urus, Aventador SV, Aventador SVJ, Rolls Royce Dawn, Rolls Royce Ghost, and custom-built Jaguar Mk5s.

We've had the pleasure of being involved in some of Sydney's biggest weddings, been involved in many big brand photoshoots and videos, and had the pleasure of transporting international celebrities like Kyle Sandilands, The Doc, DJ Yella, Dirk Nowitzki, Blue Face, Trippie Redd, Lil Pump, Skepta, Hooligan Hef, Murder Beats and Kehlani.

WOW. That is quite a story. So what's next for Hashtag?

Well I'm always staying up to date with the fleet and am currently operating 4 different transport companies (The Vintage Chauffeur, Hashtag Events, Paramount Luxury Hire, and Patron Concierge)

What's next for Hashtag would be to continue to build relationships while providing premium service to our clients. We are constantly seeking new vehicles to add to the mix to continue putting our stamp on the industry.
